01-05-07: Conspiracy; 2 years' probation; Currently supervised by U.S. Probation Officer Jeffrey A. Birt.

02-08-07: Order signed by Judge Lancaster; Clerical omission rectified; Term of probation amended to include 90 days home detention with electronic monitoring.

02-15-07: Order signed by Judge Lancaster; Term of probation modified to include a special condition requiring residence at the community corrections center (Renewal Center) for a period of 3 months.

RESPECTFULLY PRESENTING PETITION FOR ACTION OF COURT AND FOR CAUSE AS FOLLOWS:

Your Petitioner reports that on February 7, 2007, Ms. Cubbage entered the inpatient substance abuse treatment program at Gaudenzia, Erie, Pennsylvania. She successfully completed that program and on March 20, 2007, she began residing at the Gaudenzia Community House. Community House is a substance abuse treatment halfway-house. Ms Cubbage has agreed to remain at Community House for 180 days. According to her therapist at Community House, Ms. Cubbage is progressing very well in her recovery and has obtained employment. Based on the aforementioned positive progress the offender has made and the length of time she has agreed to remain at the halfway-house, it is felt that placement at the community corrections center (Renewal Center) may be counterproductive at this time. As such, it is the recommendation of the Probation Office that the special condition of supervision requiring residence at the community corrections center (Renewal Center) for a period of three months be removed.
